In summing up for a thorough inquiry into the mental condition of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy before the Masters, Senator Chandler cited her order to her disciples: "Obey. When I advise, obey strictly. Never question it, because I am God's mouthpiece, and God commands that you obey his commands without understanding why." This, he said, was evidence of her delusion of grandeur.

The report that Attorney Sam Anderson of Newport has withdrawn from the race for Appellate Judge is not correct. Fifteen counties comprise the District, and in this there are six candidates, including Mr. Anderson. The Republican Convention at which a candidate will be nominated will be held at Maysville on August 29th.

Beautiful Latonia race course will remain intact. Such was the decision Wednesday morning of Circuit Judge Shaw, of Covington, when he handed down a perpetual injunction restraining Mayor Earle and others of Latonia from tearing down the fence surrounding the track and cutting up the place to run streets through it. Judge Shaw not only prevents the destruction of the track but also establishes the ownership of the ground, which is valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

When you see a girl sit down to dinner and tackle a juicy steak smothered in onions it's a sign she isn't worrying over love affairs.

Disfranchises The Negro.

By a vote of 159 to 16, the Georgia house passed Wednesday the so-called negro disfranchisement bill which was previously adopted by the Senate. The lower branch of the legislature made a few minor amendments to the bill, received from the Senate, to which body it is to be returned for concurrence. That the Senate will adopt the amendment is considered a certainty and the bill will become a law within a few days.

It is far better for a girl to remain single than marry a good looking man, for he will monopolize the mirror.

Ex-Kentuckian Dies In Denver.

John L. Reutt, the last territorial Governor and the first State Executive of Colorado, died at Denver Wednesday.

He was appointed territorial Governor in 1875 by President Grant, who remembered him as an honest quarter-master in the war. He was elected first Governor of the State in 1876 and again for the term 1891-1893. He was a Republican and one of the largest counties in the State is named for him. He was born in Eddyville, Ky., eighty-one years ago, and went to Illinois in childhood, where he was educated in the district schools.

Hearing In Hargis Cases.

Judge Moody, Special Judge in the trial of James Hargis and others charged with the murder of Dr. D. B. Cox, has set Saturday as the time for hearing arguments on the motion to remand to Breathitt county the cases against John Abner, Bill Britton and Elbert Hargis. Court will sit at Lexington instead of Standley Hook. The defense will charge that lawlessness exists in Breathitt county and that a fair trial cannot be had.

Campaign to Open at Lexington.

The Democratic State Campaign Committee decided yesterday afternoon to open the campaign Thursday, Aug. 29, at Lexington, when Auditor S. W. Hager, the nominee for Governor, will speak. Gov. Beckham will open the campaign in Western Kentucky on Monday, September 2.

All the members of the Campaign Committee were present except John F. Hager, who was too ill to attend. Talks were made by all the candidates on the State ticket. Gov. Beckham said he would rather lose the race for Senator than to see the State ticket lose.

To Try Thaw In January.

The second trial of Harry K. Thaw, charged with the murder of Stanford White, is not likely to take place until the January term of court. This information was developed yesterday at a conference between Martin W. Littleton, counsel for Thaw, and District Attorney Jerome.

Two Brothers Drown.

While in bathing at Abner's Mill, in Nicholas county, yesterday, Frank and Charles Bryant, brothers, aged 14 and 16, were drowned. The younger boy was seized with cramps and the other undertook to rescue him, but lost his own life. Should Have the Raise.

The telegraph operators' strike which is general throughout the country assumed a new phase at Lexington yesterday morning, when all the messenger boys employed in the Western Union office—five in number—walked out at 11 o'clock, joining the strike out of sympathy, and to enforce their demands of a new scale of wages.

The boys have been receiving $3.75 a week, but demand 2 cents apiece for each message received and delivered. As each messenger handles on an average of about forty messages a day, this would mean an increase of about $1.75 a week in wages for each of the messengers.

The Lind Of Dog It Was.

The following notice has been published in a northern Peninsula paper by a French-Canadian:

"Lost. One dawg. Been loose him bout three weeks. Him white dawg almost white with him tail cut off close next to her body. Anybody find her bring him to me. I belong to him and shall give good rewards for the same. Black spot on him nose about size of fifty cents or dollar piece, Canada money or United States all the same. For yours truly with anxious, Felix Carno, hind side of Methodist Church about three blocks in the house up stairs with green painting."

Although a woman knows she is not an angel, she never fully forgives her husband for not being a hero.

Act Like Hogs.

When one hog gets an ear of corn every other hog will trot along behind and squeal and bed and is ready for a bite, but just let that hog get his head fast in the crack of a fence and every son of a sow will jump on and help tear him to pieces. Just so it is with men. As long as a man is prosperous and has money he can't keep his friends off with a baseball bat. The moment he is unfortunate and his wealth is gone he is not only snubbed by his former friends but they begin to do him all the harm possible. When a man starts down grade the world steps aside and greases the track.

The game of whist a woman plays is not a reliable index to her useful accomplishments.

A Good Ad.

Rev. A. S. Phelps, pastor of the M. E. church at Plainville, Wis., runs a standing "ad" in the local paper calling attention in display type to the goods he handles. It reads as follows: "Eternal Life Assurance Company, Home Office, Heavenly City, New Jerusalem. President, the Lord Jesus. Capital, God's everlasting love. The firm assures you peace and joy here and in the next world a life of everlasting blessedness. No certificate of health necessary."

Plenty Of Beer.

The Danville Advocate says that from one to three car loads of beer are shipped to that local option town each week. It is shipped from Cincinnati and there is no way to stop it, as the Court of Appeals has decided that it is interstate commerce and not affected by local laws. So booze is plentiful in Little Brittan. The wholesale quantities of the shipments would seem to indicate a good sized drought in Boyle.

One thing that makes a man admire a woman is his inability to guess what she will do next.

Blue Grass Fair.

The Blue Grass Fair at Lexington is having large crowds and giving fine displays of show stock of every description. The following Bourbon county people have taken premium:

Filly, foal of 1907, to be shown in hand, dams not permitted in ring—first, $25, Asa Jewell; second, $15, Quincy Ward.

Brood mare, 4 years and over, with foal of 1907 at heel, each to count 50 per cent; both to be shown in hand—first, $40, J. Q. Ward; second, $25, Asa Jewell. To the winner of this ring Mr. Jere Tarlton donates a season to his stallion, Baron Dillon; value $50.

In the ring for fine harness stallions, 4 years old or over, Sunland Chief, owned by J. Miller Ward, was given the second premium, Star McDonald defeating him.

In the poultry show Mr. James Duncan Bell, of this city, captured two premiums on his Buff Wyandottes, in classes 132 and 130. This was Mr. Belle's first show of his chickens and he should be proud of winning in such a large list of entries as were at Lexington.

A widower with seven children stands a better show of getting married again than a widow with one.

C. L. Hukill, the well-known tailor of Main street, Paris, Ky., says: "Some years ago I realized positively that I was a victim of kidney trouble and I was gradually but surely getting worse. No amount of medicine gave me any relief and I began to feel that I was incurable. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I procured a box, and after giving the medicine a thorough test, I can heartily endorse Doan's Kidney Pills as I believe them to be the best kidney remedy."
